Participants: This clinic is for everyone; whether it's your first year showing, you just want to learn more about the sport of reined cow horse, or you want to take the test to be a carded judge.

If you attend the clinic, you do not have to take the test. Only those who want to be a carded judge would stay Sunday afternoon to take the test (there is no additional charge for taking the test).

This is a very informative, classroom style clinic with the use of DVD's, written material and white board.
